It would be foolish and even perhaps presumptuous to congratulate  $\pi$ you at one instant in time when you have offered so much for so long.
So I will not presume. But may I offer you my felicitations for the occasion with the friendly hope that it will be followed by unabated contentment; and congratulations to the Nobel Committee for an illustrious if tardy exercise of its duty as the conscience of global science.

John.
